Journeys of the Heart

Speaker

FPC pastor for Family and Student Ministries, Rev. Ruthie Seiders, will lead us.

Originally from Maine, Ruthie joined the FPC staff in 2008. Along with youth, her passions also include strong women's ministry. She has led and spoken at many PW and other women's retreats at various churches. Ruthie believes in developing women's leadership and advocates for involvement and fellowship in the church. This retreat is an opportunity to worship, grow and serve together while enjoying the Hill Country!

Worship Leader

Kristy Smith is a music educator of eight years and teaches elementary music at SACS. She is also blessed to serve in music ministry with her husband, Kyle, who leads worship at Community Bible Church in Boerne. Kristy holds a bachelors degree from Boston's Berklee College of Music in piano performance. She is blessed to use her music education and experience to teach, lead, and daily praise the Lord!

About

Join us as FPC women and friends of all ages gather to explore our theme of Journeys of the Heart: Destination Known. We'll look at the journeys of Gabriel to Mary and Joseph, Mary to Elizabeth, Christ's journey from the manger to the cross and many others. Christ's journey was one of the heart. It was a destination known. Come explore your journey in light of Christ's.
